Drum Coupling Change

Models Affected

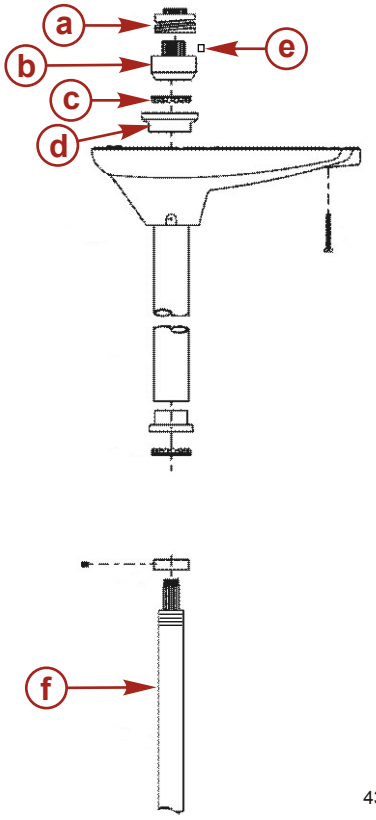

All Tour edition models with the old style drum coupling.

Situation

Drum coupling part number MFM06402T is no longer available. The old style drum coupling was secured to the column shaft with a rivet. The new style drum coupling is threaded onto the column shaft and secured with a set screw.

Replacement Instructions

If drum coupling part number MFM06402T requires replacement, a new drum coupling with a set screw, roller bearing, bearing cup, drum control, and threaded column must be installed. Refer to the appropriate service manual for installation instructions.
